Savaneta Continue To Protest

We had mentioned in a few editions back were the Foundation Protect Commanders Bay held an important meeting to put together their next move, and this came in the form of a protest against illegal building thats going on in the area of Savaneta, this attack however is against mrs Osyth Henriquez who is the owner of different projects in that area, the protesters who is led by Jerry Schwengle protested from 1 project to the next. Mr. Jerry Schwengle sent another letter to the Minster in charged Marisol Lopez, we hope he did not send this in a whatsapp as we know she does not read those in time.

Teachers Pissed OFF with Minister Of Education!

The teachers have had enough of the Minister of Education with his new plans for Aruba's educational future. Privatizing schools making the new school fee's increase by 5x , closing down some of the San Nicolas schools and much more shocking moves from the Minister of Education. He is not taking any advise from the teachers and is moving like a loose cannon. The teachers are going to different areas around Aruba to inform the parents of whats going on.

The First Black Samurai

When a 6 foot tall African Slave by the name of Yasuke landed in Japan, he stuck out like a sore thumb. People lost all modesty and nearly caused a stampede trying to get a closer look. Such a sight was so foreign in Kyoto. He was one of the First Africans to arrive on the Island that a powerful Japanese Warlord ordered him to remove his clothes while a flock of servants tried to scrub "The black ink" off his skin. He was the world's First Black samurai..

San Nicolas Black Life Matter

According to one of the speakers at the "Black Lives Matter", taking in consideration the content of what is been presented at the Carnival Village, he consider the event a historic moment for San Nicolas. In this case he referred to the fact, for the first In San Nicolas a public event is being held where the topic is based on racial discrimination, racism, or whatever surround the last mentioned . The speakers were Jacqueline Woodley, Earl Euson, Clementia Eugene, Gregory Richardson, Jeffrey Nedd , Judge Clinton Foy, Mireille Sint Jago and Sonny Richardson.

The message that the speakers presented varied from be proud of who you are as a black person to personally experienced discrimination in Aruba. Having said that, was said there are few people of dark color working at Governmental departments .And looking at the businesses and institutions as a whole he finds that dark people are poor represented One of the speakers even said that in past during application for a loan at the bank, when he said he was working for the Government , the person that attended him , ask him if he was sure that he is working for the Government.

Another speaker paid attention to the way that George Floyd life is put to and end. In this case he focused on the knee of the White Police officer, placed 8 and 45 seconds on Floyd' s neck. And this with a racist intention. Also was put to the attention of those present ,to support the businesses in San Nicolas, that creates a sense of unity in the Community. The event ended by saying: Be proud of who and what you are, stand up for your rights, and consider yourself as an Arubian the same way others consider themselves as being an Arubian.
